Percipio Consulting Group Receives Portland Business Journal "Fastest" Award for Third Year in a Row

Portland, Oregon, December, 2007 —For 24 years, the Portland Business Journal has named local businesses to its annual list of Oregon's 100 Fastest Growing Private Companies. Percipio Consulting Group, Portland's business consultancy with expertise in Operations Improvement, was named to this list for the third year in a row. Percipio was awarded the 64th place in the list.

"It has been another exciting year for us. We were again able to grow our client base and add new excellent people to our organization. Growth has not been as steep as the last years for us. But this is also what you can expect from a company that is no longer considered a newbie anymore but rather an active and sustainable part of our local community. For me, as a native Oregonian it is very exciting to help create a sustainable business economy for Oregon," says Tim Bergler, Principal and founder of Percipio Consulting Group.

In 2005, Percipio was listed as the 18th fastest growing private company in Oregon. In 2006, Percipio was listed as the 25th.
